

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHARLOTTE DIVISION
CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 3:95-CR-00020-GCM

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JAMES LARRY JOHNSON,

Defendant.

ORDER

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Defendant James Larry Johnson’s second pro se Motion for Early Termination of Supervised Release (ECF No. 136). Johnson filed a motion for early termination in January of this year, which was denied without prejudice.¹ See ECF No. 134. In his renewed motion, Johnson states two reasons for early termination: First, he has “made every effort to not violate [supervised release] nor commit any crime.” ECF No. 136 at 2. Second, Johnson cites “multiple medical conditions” that make supervision particularly onerous. Id.

The United States Probation Office supports the motion for early termination. Johnson’s probation officer in the Middle District of North Carolina explains that Johnson has been polite and cooperative, and that—aside from a single positive test for marijuana in April 2021—his conduct under supervision has been satisfactory.

The Court agrees, and will grant the motion. Mr. Johnson is to be congratulated for his efforts. The undersigned judge wishes Mr. Johnson all the best, and earnestly hopes that neither he nor any other judge sees Mr. Johnson in court ever again under unhappy circumstances.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Motion for Early Termination (ECF No. 136) is GRANTED.

SO ORDERED.
